

Module 5 – Flask Backend API

This module implements RESTful APIs using Flask to process user inputs, apply ML predictions, compute sustainability metrics, and return structured recommendations. PostgreSQL integration ensures reliable data management.